

WIDOW

Of Burdick Wins By Decision

Handed Down Today By the Court

SHE CONTROLS GUARDIANSHIP OF HER CHILDREN,

AND ALSO MANAGES THE ESTATE

Of Her Late Husband Whose Shocking Murder Still Remains a Complete Mystery.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick, widow of the late Edwin L. Burdick, whose murder was the deepest of mysteries, has been awarded the management of the Burdick estate by Surrogate Marcus. A decision to that effect was handed down this morning by the surrogate. By this ruling Mrs. Burdick not only controls the guardianship of her three children, but also has the management of the estate, two trusts her dead husband sought to keep from her because of her alleged duplicity. Judge Marcus holds that the wording of the fourth paragraph of the Burdick will does not suggest that he intended to give the persons named as guardians any trust powers as were claimed by those appointed. It is understood Mrs. Burdick, the guardian of her three children, has received insurance policies amounting to $14,000. The real estate of Burdick has been appraised at some $40,000.

CAPT. WARDEN

RETIRES FROM MANAGEMENT OF THE HOTEL

Having Formed Partnership With Eugene Tuttle of Quincy, Ill.—Mr. Warden to Rest.

Captain F. G. Warden, who for the past 17 years has been proprietor and manager of the Hotel Warden, has formed a partnership with Eugene Tuttle, of Quincy, Ill., as to the Warden, corner of Second and East Main streets. As to the other hotel and other properties owned by Captain Warden, he retains the sole proprietary interest. Captain Warden, after seventeen years of success in the hotel business, steps down from the management of the Warden, which will be assumed by Mr. Tuttle. The captain proposes at least for a long time to take things easily and relinquish active business cares while he is yet young and in the prime of life to enjoy the competence which has come to him through hard work and good business judgment. Among other things will be a trip to Europe, the date of which, however, he does not now know. Mr. Tuttle is an experienced and thoroughly up-to-date hotel man and the former high standard of management of the cuisine and other departments that has made the Warden what it now is will be maintained. The Canadian Pacific railway sold last year from its subsidy land nearly 2,600,000 acres at a price averaging less than $4 an acre. In the previous year it sold less than 1,600,000 acres at a price averaging a little over $5 an acre.

He was at his office before 10 o'clock as usual and remained through his customary working hours. JEALOUS

Son of a Rich Farmer Struck Rival and Fled.

Dingess, W. Va., Oct. 27.—Millard Adkins, son of a wealthy farmer of Dingess, was walking home with two young women last night when Stewart Price, jealous of Adkins' attentions to a young woman, it is claimed, walked up behind Adkins and crushed his skull with a club. Price took to the hills and has not yet been arrested. The young women who were with Adkins picked up the unconscious man and carried him a quarter of a mile to a farmer's home. Adkins is alive to day, but has not regained consciousness. He will die.

REVOLTING

CRIMES FASCINATED THIS MAN

Who Shot His Two Children Sunday—His Wife Talks of Her Husband's Crimes.

Indianapolis, Oct. 27.—That Thomas J. McClure, who killed his four-year-old son, Homer, and probably fatally wounded his son, Doe, two years younger, was led to the commission of the deed by following the stories of Wife Murderer Alfred Knapp and other degenerates, is the belief of McClure's wife. She says her husband always evinced a keen interest in stories of revolting crimes. For many months, according to her story, he seemed to take a delight in recounting the bloody deeds of Knapp and compelled her to sit while he read to her accounts of the trial and evidence. The confessions of Knapp seemed to have for him a fascination. Even the comments of the press on the probable death of the wife murderer in the electric chair seemed to attract McClure and he told his wife that if he had to die he would like to be electrocuted.

MURDER

Of Young Woman and Arrest of Her Fiance Today.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 27.—Mabel H. Bechtel, aged 21, of this city, was cruelly murdered and her body was found under an alleyway adjoining her home by her mother this morning. The murdered girl was last seen out driving yesterday with David Weisenberger. About one o'clock this morning Mrs. Bechtel was aroused by the barking of dogs and, peeping through the window curtains, saw two strong men removing a package from a carriage. Further investigation revealed nothing but this morning, upon arising, Mrs. Bechtel found her daughter's bare shoes, stockings and other wearing apparel in the dining room and in a few moments found the body of her dead daughter with her skull crushed in. The murderers left no clue to their identity. Weisenberger denies the murder charge but will be held pending further investigation.

Fred McKelstein, Miss Bechtel's fiance, and her brother, John Bechtel, were arrested this afternoon on suspicion of being implicated in the murder.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 27.—Reaver Creek was the scene of a Kuklux depredation Sunday night, when outlaws entered the residence of "Uncle" John Moore, aged 80, and after robbing him of $1,200, whipped him into insensibility. Leaving the old man for dead, they proceeded to administer the lash upon his aged wife. Her screams attracted neighbors to the scene. They drove the outlaws into the mountains. Monday warrants were issued for the men and officers are now searching the mountains. A battle is expected when the outlaws and officers meet. Moore will die. No cause is known for the outrage except robbery.

FALL

Of Ballots Week From Today

Eleven States to Vote November 3

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS ELECTED IN THREE BIG CITIES.

WHILE FULL STATE TICKETS

Will Be Voted in Seven of the States—Some of the Leading Candidates.

New York, Oct. 27.—Elections will be held in 11 states one week from today.

Full state tickets are to be voted for in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, Iowa and Mississippi, while in New York, Pennsylvania, Nebraska and Colorado a justice of the upper courts, regents of the State university, or minor state officers are to be chosen. Municipal officials are to be selected in Greater New York, San Francisco and Salt Lake.

The prohibitionists have a ticket in all the states except Nebraska and Colorado, the Socialists in two states, Iowa and Colorado, and the Socialist-Labor party in three, New York, Massachusetts and Ohio. Fusion was effected in only one state, Nebraska, though the Republicans of New York endorsed the Democratic nominee for judge of the court of appeals. The most interesting contests in the East are the state elections in Maryland and Rhode Island, and the municipal and county contests in New York City.

In Maryland the offices of governor, comptroller and attorney general will be filled. Edwin Warfield, the Democratic candidate, is fighting the issue with Stevenson A. Williams, the Republican nominee. The offices of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general and treasurer will be selected in Rhode Island. Samuel P. Colt heads the Republican ticket and Lucius Garvin, the present executive, occupies the same position on the Democratic ticket.

Last year Garvin upset the plans of the Republicans by securing an election, although every other successful candidate was a Republican. Massachusetts will choose a full state ticket. All the Republican candidates were renominated. Bates, besides having been governor this year, was previously lieutenant governor for three years.

Pennsylvania will elect an auditor general, treasurer and two judges of the superior court.

Court of appeals judge is the only state office to be voted for in New York. Judge Dennis O'Brien, Democrat, will have the race to himself, having been endorsed by the Republicans. The interest in New York will center in the municipal and county contests in Manhattan and Kings boroughs.

Seth Low, the present mayor, is the fusion candidate, and George B. McClellan, the Democratic nominee. Ex-Deputy Police Commissioner Devery is an independent candidate, and the Prohibitionists and Socialists have also made nominations.

In Iowa, Albert B. Cummins is making his second race for governor, his opponent being Jeremiah B. Sullivan, who is depending on the Democratic vote, the Populists having their own state ticket. Governor Beckham is seeking reelection in Kentucky, the Republican candidate being Morris B. Belknap who is making a very active canvass.

Cincinnati Fire.

Cincinnati, Oct. 27.—In a fierce fire today at Curry, Wood & Co.'s establishment loss of life was narrowly averted. The loss will reach $150,000.

Kills Baby and Woman May Die—Other Lives Endangered at Marion.

Marion, O., Oct. 27.—Natural gas escaping caused the death of a baby and endangered the lives of five others at the home of Ray Shultz.

A defective joint allowed the gas to leak, and it was not noticed until the several members of the family began to get drowsy. The babe went into spasms and the grandmother picked it up and started for the door, but was overcome and fell to the floor.

Two neighbor women rushed in but were rendered unconscious before they could render aid.

When the doctors arrived the babe was dead and five were unconscious.

All are able to be about, but the grandmother, who may die.

SUICIDE

Of Girl Who Left Note Telling of Her Unhappiness.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 27.—Miss Belle Little, aged 24, committed suicide at Elkton by almost severing her head from the body with a razor. A note pinned carefully in her hair told the tale of her unhappiness and gave her reasons for ending her life. Miss Little was a niece of the late J. B. Marcum, who was killed last May in the court house here while standing in the dock with Captain Ewen. Her father, Jack Little, was killed four years ago in a fight, by John Wilson, the latter being convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to serve three years in the pen. He was recently released.

A love affair is said to have caused her to prefer to teach a country school.

J. N. CREATED SCENE. Delaware, Oct. 27.—Encouraged by the applause of a thousand fun-loving students, J. N. Free, the "Immortal J. N.," came near breaking up chapel exercises at Ohio Wesleyan university yesterday.

He stalked into the chapel in the middle of the services and making his way to the front of the platform began a speech in the midst of the remarks of President Bashford, and it was only by the aid of the big organ that his voice could be drowned.

He was finally persuaded to discontinue his speech until after the morning services, when he gathered an audience of students about him on the campus.

BANK CAVED

Charles Ridenbaugh Was Caught Under the Earth and Painfully Hurt Today.

Charles Ridenbaugh, a teamster, who has been engaged in hauling sand for his brother, George Ridenbaugh, for the new street paving improvement on Cedar street, of which Brennan & Nutter have the contract, met with an accident on Tuesday, which was quite painful in its results. Mr. Ridenbaugh was engaged in loading his wagon at the sand bank, near the Weippert brick yard, when the bank caved, several large clods of earth falling against him and pinning one of his legs to the wagon wheel. He was soon extricated from his uncomfortable position, when it was found that the leg about the ankle had been badly bruised. Mr. Ridenbaugh, however, continued working and hauled one load of sand when the injured leg became so painful that he was obliged to quit work and return home where the injured member was properly attended to.

BANKER

DID BUSINESS ALONG VERY ODD LINES

In 19 Years He Took No Trial Balance and at Topeka Kept No Books At All.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 27.—Rollin Allison, owner of the defunct banks at LaGrange and Topeka, Ind., was examined before Referee in Bankruptcy Harris. He admitted that in the 19 years he conducted the LaGrange bank he had never taken a trial balance and never knew how much the bank was worth. He started the Topeka bank as a branch four years ago and he never kept a set of books there. He says that three years ago when he thought he was the most prosperous, he now believes he was a bankrupt.

When questioned as to what he had done with the $200,000 of deposits belonging to LaGrange farmers and business men, he said that he lost $15,000 in the Snow Flake Washing Powder company, $2,000 in the LaGrange Brick company, $5,000 in a brick machinery plant at Kendallville and other northern Indiana points; $4,000 in nerve coffee, at Elkhart; $14,000 in the dairy business; $2,000 in horse deals; $2,000 in a mitten factory; $1,000 in a canning factory, $32,000 in Cherrydale, Kan., oil and gas lands, and $11,000 which he loaned to his brother-in-law to build a railway line near Joplin, Mo.

PERSIA'S FOXY GRANPA AND HIS FLIP-FLAPS

PERSIA'S EX-GRAND VIZIER.

Teheran, Persia, Oct. 27.—The disgrace of the Persian grand vizier, the Atabak-Azam, removes, probably permanently, one of the most prominent and interesting figures of the middle east. He has been the most prominent figure in the political turmoil during the life of the late shah, who was rather friendly towards England, and the grand vizier could not do enough for the British. The present shah is strongly inclined towards Russia, and the grand vizier at once turned from the lion to the bear.

This is not the first time that he has been disgraced. Several years ago he was removed from office and only saved his life through the intervention of the British minister. When he returned to power he first set an attempt to have the minister removed because Russia did not like him. For several years he has been the chief creation of Russia. He is well versed in oriental diplomacy and intrigue, and is a shrewd diplomat. The most forceful man in the empire.

Russia's count of fiscal last year was worth $42,000,000, which put her at the head of the list. The British, on the other hand, were given as $3 to 1,000,000. The percentages in the petroleum $5 in the oil and $6 in the brown.

WEDS

Southern Widow at Atlanta

Senator Stewart Is the Bridegroom

THOUGH ALMOST FOUR SCORE YEARS OF AGE,

WHILE HIS BRIDE IS AGED FORTY.

Courtship Was Short and the Wedding Monday Evening Was a Simple Affair.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—William Morris Stewart, the white-haired senator from Nevada, who has worn his toga longer than any living member of the upper house of Congress, is a bridegroom.

He was married last evening and the woman who became his wife in that simple, quiet wedding was Mrs. May Agnes Cone, widow of the late Theodore C. Cone, son of the famous Francis S. Cone of antebellum note.

The wedding was the culmination of a courtship comparatively brief.

Since her husband's death nine years ago, Mrs. Cone has spent her time alternately in Washington and Madison, Ga.

In Washington she was seen much in society and in the foremost circles of the capital she numbered her friends by the score. It was there that Senator Stewart met her when he re-entered society after the death of his first wife a few months ago.

Mrs. Stewart is about 40 years old and a handsome woman of charming manners. She is a decided brunette. Senator Stewart is 76 years old. Despite his years the senator is in vigorous health and is one of the ablest and most forceful orators in the senate.

The senator followed the example of Senator Platt, who at the age of 78 years was married a few days ago.

LAND SCANDAL

BEGINS TO CAUSE GRAVE CONCERN AT WASHINGTON

Huge Frauds in West Alleged to Have Been Committed by Congressmen and Railroads.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune sends the following: "There is grave concern in the department of the interior over certain evidence just reaching Washington relating to land frauds of gigantic proportions in the Western country.

Allegations so startling as to require the most absolute confirmation are advanced. It is claimed by persons resenting those charges that several great railroad systems and many members of Congress have engaged in a system of conspiracy by which they procured title to worthless lands, induced the government to make reserves for forest purposes, including the public lands, and secured the right to select in lieu thereof valuable lands, not so reserved, thus effecting the exchange of practically worthless land for that worth from $5 to $6 an acre.

"It is worthy of note that the land act never came up for open discussion by Congress, having been introduced by Senator Stewart as an amendment to an appropriation bill, and so enacted.

"As 11,000,000 acres have been reserved for forest purposes in the last 15 years, the opportunities for fraud have been enormous, but more convincing evidence than has been presented thus far must be produced to establish the validity of the sensational allegations now being made."

No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss EASY WHITTAKER, 604 39th St., W. Savannah, Ga. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

CAPTAIN

OF POLICE IS SUSPENDED BY THE CHIEF.

Hearing Before the Mayor Later—How New Municipal Code Works in This Case.

Police Chief James S. Sheridan Tuesday morning notified Mayor A. J. Crilly that he had suspended William Howard, captain of police, pending investigation of charges of intoxication on August 21, October 20 and October 21 while on duty.

It may be of interest to know the method of procedure in cases of this kind under the code now in force.

Captain Howard will have a hearing before Mayor Crilly, who if he sustains the charges against the captain, may either suspend or remove him from office. In either case the officer will have a right of appeal to the board of public safety, which may either affirm or reverse the finding and sentence of the mayor. The decision of Messrs. T. M. Ball and F. A. Dolton, the members of the board of safety, is final.

Should the mayor, upon investigation, decide the charges to be not sustained, he may reinstate the captain which is final.

The matter can come before the board of safety only on appeal from the decision of the mayor.

Musical at the Warden.

A number of Newark's music lovers enjoyed a rare musical event last evening in the parlors of the Hotel Warden, a song recital by Mr. Barrington, of Columbus. Mr. Barrington's voice is beautifully modulated, sympathetic, as well as dramatic. His method is so perfect as to make one lose sight of method. His program consisted of fifteen numbers, so selected as to give the widest range to his powers. From the Tchaikowsky Serenade to the dainty ballads of Lohr, everything was executed in the perfection of style and manner.

Mr. Barrington was ably assisted by Miss Emma Ebeling, whose accompaniments were both sympathetic and animated.

MR. CLARKE TO SPEAK IN NEWARK.

As will be seen by announcement in another column of The Advocate, Hon. John H. Clarke, of Cleveland, Democratic candidate for United States senator, will address the citizens of Newark and vicinity on the issues of the campaign at the Music Hall, this city, on Friday evening of this week. This announcement ought to pack Music Hall to overflowing. Irrespective of the important issues that Mr. Clarke will discuss, and in which all public-spirited citizens are interested, he is one of the most talented and eloquent orators of the country. Every one who appreciates fine speaking and splendid oratory will enjoy a great treat by attending the meeting on Friday evening.

WHY NEWARK VOTERS SHOULD CAST THEIR BALLOTS FOR FRANK SHOWMAN.
The workmen of Newark are especially interested in having a member of the Board of Commissioners who is a resident of the city, a man who knows the city's needs, and is in thorough sympathy with the interests of all the people of the city. Such a man is Frank Showman, the Democratic candidate for this office. The Republican candidate, not being a resident of Newark, cannot have the same interest in the city's needs and what its citizen may justly ask in the way of improvements and expenditures that a man who lives in the city has. This alone is a very good and sufficient reason why the voters of Newark should cast their ballots for Frank Showman.

It is conceded on all hands that the people of Ohio are getting the worst of the deal from the Republican bosses, their superserviceable state officials and jobbing legislatures. Only one sensible thing remains to them—to vote the Republican party out of power.
Young men should be too proud of their manhood to vote for the looting, grating, plundering combination of organized greed misnamed the Republican party, and old men and middle-aged men too conscientious to do so.
Some complaint is made that Herrick advances no ideas. Why should he? If he is not elected there will be no call for them. If he is, Mark Hanna has the contract in advance to furnish them.
It only requires that all the voters in Ohio who are opposed to Hanna and Hannaism to go to the polls on the 3d of next month and vote against the party of organized boodles, to drive it out of the state.

HONEY-COMBED WITH FRAUD.

Every Department of the Government Is Rotten.

The Example of Hanna, Who Was Elected by Bribery, Is Bearing Fruit Among Those Who Owe Their Appointment to Him.

The question is being pertinently asked everywhere, whether there is any department of the national government, which is not honey-combed with fraud and corruption.

The postoffice frauds are the worst in the history of the government and the end is not yet reached by any manner of means. Arrests and indictments have been coming thick and fast.

Now they are talking that other departments of the government are little better than the postoffice. Crooks and thieves are in office everywhere. Who is responsible for these rascals? Mark A. Hanna is absolutely responsible.

Hanna was elected to the senate in 1898 through bribery open and proved. Hanna was the leader and manager of the Republican party.

Hanna was the example of those who were appointed through his dictation to the offices.

He was holding his own office through boodle and fraud.

The idea of the whole administration from top to bottom, from the highest trust magnate to the cheapest clerk, was that everything in sight should be "grabbed."

Everybody believed that it was proper to feather his own nest.

The "feathering" has gone steadily on from the beginning till the present hour.

The scandals in the government are traceable directly to the Hanna idea that a "public office is a private graft."

What could be expected of Hanna appointments when Hanna himself has publicly said to an attorney general of Ohio: "You ought to know that a public official owes the public nothing?"

HANNA AND JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRACY.

Senator Hanna is complaining because the Democratic platform is not in accord with the principles of Thomas Jefferson. It is doubtful if Hanna knows the first thing about Jefferson, his history or his principles, and if he did he would be the last man to praise a Democratic platform by saying that it was Jeffersonian. The fact is the people of Ohio have never had such an opportunity as they now have to express their opinions on the principles of Jefferson as applied to the everyday affairs. Jefferson believed in the doctrine of "Equal opportunities to all and special privileges to none." The Democratic platform declares for two-cent fare on the steam roads for everybody, instead of free rides for some, two-cent fare for others and three-cent fare for the balance of the people. Is that a Jeffersonian principle? Would Jefferson have been in favor of the same rate of fare for all the people or lower rates for the rich and higher rates for the poor?

The Democratic platform declares in favor of taxing the railroads and other large corporations on the same basis of valuation as the home and the farm. Is not that a practical application of the doctrine of "special privileges to none?"

The Democratic platform declares in favor of "home rule," that is, to give every city and village the right to govern itself according to its needs as it sees fit without the interference of the representatives of other districts and other cities. Is not that another practical application of the Jeffersonian doctrine of "Equal opportunity to all?"

What has Mr. Hanna to say about these planks in the Democratic platform? Has he ever singled any one of them out and applied the test to see whether they are Jeffersonian or not; or has he been so busy all his life using his political power and influence to make money for himself and his associates that he could not recognize a Jeffersonian principle when he sees one?

JOHNSON'S TAXES.

One of the features of the Johnson meetings that has made a hit in every town in which the tent has been pitched this fall, is the stereotyped illustration of Tom L. Johnson's taxes given by Peter Witt, the tax expert. "In 1896," Witt explains, "the personal property of all the millionaires on Euclid avenue, not including Tom Johnson, from Erie street to Willson avenue, a distance of two miles, was valued for taxation at $720,000. That included money in bank, stocks and bonds, watches and jewelry, horses and carriages, household furniture—everything movable in fact. In that year the Republican tax assessors put Johnson down for $1,200,000 personal property. In 1899 they increased Johnson's personal property taxes to $3,054,000, which was $1,800,000 more than the tax value of all the personal property owned by all the millionaires on Euclid avenue five miles of street, including John D. Rockefeller. In 1880 Senator Hanna returned for taxation $14,000 worth of personal property. In 1896 he returned his personal property at $7,000. And it was in that year they wanted Tom Johnson to pay on $1,600,000. Do you wonder that Cuyahoga county, where the people know Mr. Hanna, has gone Democratic?"

JOHN H. CLARK SPEAKS HERE NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT.

JOHN H. CLARKE.
Hon. John H. Clarke, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, will speak at Music Hall on Friday evening, October 30.

WHY DID HERRICK RESIGN?

Just why Colonel Myron T. Herrick should so ostentatiously resign his railroad and other corporation directorships and have the fact announced from the house-tops, and through all the Hanna newspapers is hard to understand in one sense, and easy in another.

What was wrong in his holding these positions? Has anybody undertaken to tell? Can anybody tell? Was there anything wrong?

If there was nothing wrong, why resign at all? Does the resignation imply that Colonel Herrick was engaged in a bad business?

The fact is that Colonel Herrick was one of the factors in the J. P. Morgan syndicate, and the coal and railway trust extending into Ohio. And he still is, notwithstanding his pretended resignation.

About the only thing that Colonel Herrick has done is to confess that he is ashamed to let the people of Ohio know the kind of business from which he has amassed his millions.

If Colonel Herrick was ashamed of himself in this respect, as his action indicates that he is, what right has he to expect other than that the voters of Ohio will also be ashamed of him when they go to the polls?

And the chances are that a majority of them will be.

Vote right. Hanna may not like it, but better men will.

Senator Hanna may not be a demagogue, but he has all the earmarks when he attempts to make a speech.

When the people of this community go and hear Mr. Clarke address them at the Music Hall meeting on Friday night they will be able to appreciate why Mark Hanna feared to meet him in joint debate in the campaign.

It is true enough that Tom L. Johnson speaks plain and that the Democratic platform is a plain-spoken instrument, but the conditions require that the truth be told with the rough side out.

Every opponent of Hannaism and boodles and tax dodging should not only go to the polls on the third of November, but should take at least one other voter with him to help turn the rascals out.

GET BUSY

It is now less than two weeks until election day. Every Democrat in the county should be active from now until the polls close. Make arrangements to spend November third at the polls. In the meantime see and talk with your neighbor in regard to the situation and get him interested as to the result. The Democratic party has placed an excellent ticket before you. It is composed of good men from top to bottom. These men are entitled to your support. It is due them and every Democrat in the county should see that they get it. Get busy and stay busy until the last vote is in the ballot box.

Mark Hanna's Cleveland street railway was placed on the tax duplicate for $6,000,000 on the theory that it was worth $10,000,000, other property being valued for taxation at that ratio. Governor Nash, Auditor Guilbert and Injunction Sheets put it back to $600,000, and Hanna's legislature legislated out of office the board of review that made the raise. The road was since sold for $10,500,000, showing that Mark Hanna's political enemies had been fair with him, and his own creatures ridiculously kind. The other people of Cleveland pay nine-tenths of Hanna's taxes for him. Is it any wonder that with Hanna in control of the Republican party Cuyahoga county persists in going Democratic?

Marcus A. Hanna does not dare tell an Ohio audience that he has read the Constitution of the United States and invite inquiries as to what is in it, and yet he assumes to be too good a man to debate with a gentleman and a scholar like John H. Clarke. The people of Newark and vicinity will have an opportunity to hear Mr. Clarke speak at Music Hall next Friday night.

OPPOSITION IS IN DISTRESS.

Two-Cent Railroad Fare, They Say, Is Socialism.

To Compel the Steam Railroads and Other Privileged Interests to Pay Taxes on the Same Basis as Farmers and Owners Is Also Socialistic, They Say—Home Rule Is Denied.

In his speech at Chardon Herrick was very particular to insist that single tax is socialism and that socialism will overturn the nation. He presumed upon the ignorance of his hearers. He assumed that none of them knew any more about either single tax or socialism than he does. The assumption may have been correct.

The argument of Herrick and Hanna now runs as follows:

What about home rule? That is socialism. It is wicked. It will overturn Christianity.

What is equal taxation? Socialism pure and simple. That is what Tom Johnson wants. He is trying to have the monopolies pay the same taxes in proportion as you pay on your farms. That would never do. It would be wicked. It would overturn Christianity. God help us to escape anything like that.

What is two-cent fare? Is there any objection to people in Ohio riding for the same rate per mile as in New York and Michigan? Certainly there is. It is Socialism to ask for it. It is a Johnsonism or a fad. It is wicked. Two-cent fare is something which we should ask God to help us escape on all occasions. We should not kick about the rate of fare but work all the harder to get the three cents.

Was it not a high handed proposition to fasten a street railroad franchise on the people of Cincinnati for 44 years at a five cent rate of fare? Certainly it was. But it was all right. The people down there have gotten used to high handed things. They do not believe in fads and isms. They have George B. Cox, and thank God twice a day that they are still permitted to breathe the air without paying a tax.

What is a fad and an ism? They are really the same thing; like anarchy and socialism an ism is a higher and more dangerous degree than a fad. That is all. To want two-cent fare on the railroads is a "fad." To desire to have the public service corporations pay their taxes is an "ism."

God help us to escape all fads and isms. If they are not frowned down they will overturn Christianity and wound the feelings of Brethren John D. Rockefeller and J. Pierpont Morgan. They are "business men," like Hanna, and do not desire to pay their taxes. If we insist upon "fads" and "isms," Rockefeller might take away all the oil, Morgan all the hard coal and Hanna has already threatened that he will make half the workmen walk the streets in idleness.

HANNA ON TAXATION.

Used His Power as United States Senator to Lower the Taxes on His Street Railroad.

Hanna uses his power as a political boss and United States senator to save his street railroad from paying its share of taxes. Here is the proof:

In 1901 the Little Consolidated was on the tax duplicate at $600,000 Mayor Johnson appointed an annual city board of equalization, which put the railroad on at $6,000,000 or 60 per cent of the $10,000,000, which Mr. Johnson estimated it to be worth. Hanna had the legislature pass ripper legislation knocking out the city board and substituting one named by the governor—a blow at home rule. Then State Auditor Guilbert, Attorney General Sheets and Governor Nash threw off the added valuation. Two months ago the road was sold to the Big Consolidated for $10,400,000. Incidentally the other street railroad and the gas companies of Cleveland "got in on" Hanna's raid and had their tax valuation reduced nearly $17,000,000.

This shows (1) that Mayor Johnson made a pretty close estimate of the railroad's value; (2) Hanna ruled the legislature; (3) Hanna sacrificed home rule to save his railroad; (4) Hanna rules the state officers.

Do you want to "vindicate" that kind of a United States senator?

RIFLE RANGE
NEWARK MAY SECURE THE NEXT NATIONAL SHOOT.
Legislature Will Be Asked to Make Appropriation for Purchase of Additional Ground.
Adjutant General Gyger, at Columbus, on Monday, expressed the opinion that if the state buys a certain amount of land adjoining the present rifle range at Newark, a range sufficient to care for the large national contests can be secured.
It is likely Ohio will make determined efforts to secure the next national and international shoots, if the legislature makes the appropriation for the ground.
This is a matter in which Newark people, and especially the Newark board of trade, should be interested. The purchase of additional ground by the state so as to make the rifle range good enough and large enough to attract the national and international contests would mean much to Newark. It would make Newark to Ohio what Sea Girt is to New Jersey. While it would bring the expert marksmen or many soldiers and visitors to the city, the world to Newark and would attract the chief advantage perhaps would be the advertisement such an institution would be to the city. Every paper in the United States of any consequence would print the news from the Newark rifle range and Newark would be kept prominently before the public for a week or two each year.

NEWARK WILL HAVE SHARE IN THE FUND BEING RAISED
To Send Arthur Rugh, Ohio's Man, to China—Meeting Held Here Monday Night.
The Religious Work club of the Y. M. C. A., together with a number of specially invited guests, met at the home of the president of the association, Dr. J. A. Mitchell, last night for a conference with Mr. Arthur Rugh, Ohio's man to China.
The affair was altogether one of the most delightful and at the same time the most fruitful in results of any meeting held under the auspices of the association this year.
Mr. Rugh, who has been appointed by the international committee to go to Shanghai, China, as the representative of a number of the associations of Ohio, was introduced at 8:15 and spoke most interestingly of the field to which he is going and of the relations which should ever hold between the home and the foreign associations. It is the regular Y. M. C. A. work that he will help to organize in that great metropolis of the Chinese empire.
After Mr. Rugh's presentation of the work, the men present unanimously passed a resolution that the Newark association will want a share in the support of Mr. Rugh and that there be raised this year from the membership and from friends who can be interested in the world-wide work of the association $100.
Thus has the Newark Y. M. C. A. taken another step forward.
The foreign work department will now be organized by the appointment at the next board meeting of a foreign work committee, which will have charge of raising this fund and of awakening an intelligent interest among the members in the foreign work of the association.

POLICE NEWS
"A STRONG TALK" BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE
Resulted in Recovery of Stolen Property—Mayor Dishes Out Some Doses—The Police Slate.
William Trace was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and abusing his family by Mayor Crilly this morning.
Two train riders named Chalmers and Burns were fined $7 and costs and $1 and costs respectively. Chalmers was also charged with drunkenness.
John Painter's trial for abusing his family was continued until Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Charles McKenzie was arraigned before Mayor Crilly on a charge of stealing a horse blanket, belonging to Adam Brown, who filed the affidavit. He was given 30 days and costs, as he pleaded guilty and said he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing. Two other charges of larceny are pending against McKenzie, as he stole several other blankets.
Dr. J. P. H. Stedem reported to the police that on Sunday a lady's coat valued at $20 and a gold watch had been stolen from his residence Sunday. From the circumstances Chief Sheridan had his suspicion of a certain woman, and with Officers Zergiebel and Carroll proceeded to work out the case on these lines. The officers made a "strong talk" in the presence of the suspect, who evidently took fright, and Monday the articles turned up all right and were replaced.
A lady went into Linehan's store Monday and bought a pair of shoes, which she took away with her. She stopped in several places to do some shopping, and at one missed her shoes. She reported the matter to the police, but later found the shoes at Grigg's store. They had evidently been stolen, and the police know who the guilty person was, but there is to be no prosecution.
James Dewar, who was arrested for drunkenness and was arraigned before Mayor Crilly this morning, pleaded not guilty and his case was continued. In the meantime he filed an affidavit against Bert Smith, bartender, for assault and battery, exhibiting a badly discolored eye and some severe scratches on his face.

CHANCE TO INVEST
Have you a little money, $100, $200 or $1,000, that is idle or that is drawing 3 to 4 per cent in one of the building associations? Would you be interested in a proposition that would make this money bring you 6 per cent and FREE FROM TAXES? Money on deposit in the banks and buildings associations is taxable, but PREFERRED 6 PER CENT STOCK in the Newark Telephone Company is non-taxable.
This company has in the past year spent over $60,000 in enlarging and improving its plant. The number of telephones in service has almost doubled and daily additions are being made. The men prominently identified with this company have bought some of this stock, men who know that the investment is sound and returns sure. They know that the distribution of stock is a good thing for the company and have decided to place $15,000 of this preferred stock in small amounts among the people of Licking county.

RESCUE HOME

WORK ACCOMPLISHED IN FIRST YEAR IN NEWARK.

Chief Aim is Establishing Homes for Fallen Girls—Good Results are Manifest.

The chief aim of the rescue work of the W. C. T. U. is the establishing of homes for fallen girls. To this end the state superintendent of rescue work, through the W. C. T. U., brought Mother Prindle to Newark for ten days' work last November. The subject of rescue work was brought before the people in the various churches. A home in Licking county was the outcome of this work. This home was opened to inmates March 18, 1903, with Mother Prindle in charge as matron. The public have responded very generously toward the support of this enterprise, not only in Newark, but Granville, Pataskala, Alexandria and Jersey as well. The board of managers and present matron, Miss Mears, have been untiring in their efforts to make this a home where any poor mother's girl (tired of her life of sin, may find a place where she can lead a pure, Christian life. Get those unfortunates away from their present surroundings if you want to help them to do better. The doors of our home are never closed against this submerged tenth day or night. This rescue committee has been the means of helping 13 girls, up to date, besides making over 100 visits to the fast houses of this city. Nine of these girls have passed through the doors of the home, three are at present inmates, and could you hear their testimony and see their lives day by day, you would not doubt their salvation from sin. One of those who were there is married, one has been put into a good Christian home, three, we fear, have not "returned to praise God," one has left the state for her own home. Besides the ones who have been in the home, the committee were instrumental in reaching four others, two of whom left Newark before our home was opened, and we have since heard of them doing well; the other two are in the Crittenton home in Columbus, one in training for a nurse.

In this public manner we give a history of our work so far as we know, the real result of this work during the past 11 months eternally alone will reveal.

The board of managers will be on hand from 2 o'clock until 9 o'clock p. m., Thursday the 29th, to extend to you the courtesies of the home, that being the day of the reception and donation. Trusting that many in and out of Newark will avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing for themselves what is being done for those who feel they have been hitherto friendless.
(Signed) Secretary Board of Managers.

FIRST

OF SERIES OF ENTERTAINMENTS
OF KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Attended Monday Night by 160 People.
A Fine Banquet and an Enjoyable Program.

The initial entertainment of the winter series of entertainments to be given by Newark Council, Knights of Columbus, was given at their hall in the Ankle block, Monday evening. The affair was largely attended by the Elks and their ladies. There was a reception from 8 to 10 o'clock, at which the ladies of the members were made acquainted with each other and a splendid time followed, which was made all the more enjoyable by fine music.

Shortly after 10 o'clock a splendid banquet, prepared by Knute, was served in the dining room of the lodge, at which 160 persons sat down.

Mr. W. H. Smith was toastmaster of the evening and the following toasts were responded to:

"Our Order," A. C. Davis.
"Our Patron, Christopher Columbus," Williams Shields, Jr.
"The Church," John F. Flanagan.
"Our Insurance," Dr. J. P. H. Stedman.

"The Ladies," Gil C. Daugherty.
A recitation, "At the Pearly Gates," by Bernard Wingerter, was one of the delightful features of the evening and was greatly enjoyed by all who heard it.

HOW TO HAVE A SWEET BREATH

What makes a bad breath? Some say bad teeth. Some say a bad stomach. These certainly help to make a bad breath. But more than anything else tending to breath pollution is poor blood—blood laden with poisonous gases that are poured into the lungs through its delicate walls from the vast network of capillaries which surround it. These foul gases are excretions from some sluggish gland, usually the liver or intestines.

A food that will stimulate these glands to regular and normal action will sweeten the blood and sweeten the breath. Such a food is Shredded Wheat Biscuit, which contains in perfect balance all those materials necessary to a normal bodily condition. When you meet a person who eats Shredded Wheat you may reasonably assume that such person is blessed with healthy digestion, pure blood, and a sweet breath. Have you tried this most delicious of all cereal foods?

"Shredded Wheat is invaluable not only as a breakfast food, but in various forms of cooking." Mrs. W. J. Warner, Newark, N. J.

PANIC AT WEHRLE'S

Followed Explosion Which Was Fortunate in Results.

Accident Had Many Unusual Features—Bottom of Cupola Gave Way, Allowing the Molten Iron to Pour Out Below.

An accident occurred at the Wehrle Company's foundry plant in West Newark about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon which resulted in the slight injury of a number of workmen.

The accident had several unusual features about it, not so much in its results as in the potentiality for frightful consequences, in view of which fact the accident may be termed unqualifiedly fortunate.

At the Wehrle foundry they cast every day the work made up during the morning and early afternoon, and it was just at casting time that the accident occurred.

Just before the two big cupolas had been tapped, Assistant General Foreman Joseph Moser, who in the absence of D. H. Trusdale, had charge of the foundry Monday, was making his final inspection and preparations to make the cast, when the main belt controlling the air blast broke, which caused considerable delay. He held the cupolas until the damage had been repaired, keeping the molten iron in good condition to be used by the molders, in pouring their work. The scores of molders got their ladies and had lined up about the two giant furnaces, each containing about 15 tons of molten iron.

The tap of the cupolas had been made, and the men were catching the flow of iron in their ladles, and carrying it to their moulds to be poured into the work. The iron was flowing nicely and everything pointed to a successful cast, when without a moment's warning the larger of the two cupolas emitted a roar, a blinding flash of flame, and a withering blast of hot air.

The scene which followed is beyond description. Not one man among the hundreds present knew for a moment, what had occurred, and it was not until afterward that they learned.

Some believed the furnace had sprung a leak, others thought the cupola had exploded, but the one thought that actuated all, was to get away.

The panic was complete and the men made a wild scramble in all directions, tramping down flasks and sand molds in their mad terror, as well as adding horror to the apparently desperate situation.

Foreman Joseph Moser was standing near the mouth of the cupola when the explosion came and was hurled by its force backward to the ground, leaving him comparatively unhurt. He was one of the first to recover his presence of mind, and without fully divining the cause or extent of the accident, ordered the fire brigade which was soon in readiness to combat any flames which threatened the foundry. He then gave orders looking to the relief of the injured, of whom several were seen on the ground. It was hardly thought possible that all had escaped death, but this proved true and what was more remarkable still there were no serious injuries.

Discipline began to assert itself and in a short time the men were quieted and an investigation was made.

It was found that the accident was caused by a portion of the bottom of the cupola giving way, allowing the molten iron to pour out below.

The bottom of the cupola is constructed of two heavy cast iron doors, each weighing about 1500 pounds, that are hinged at one end and come together in the center. They are secured in the center, and after they swing down, allowing the slag to be removed from the interior. One of these big doors forming the bottom of the cupola, had cracked and broken, making an opening about one-third the entire area of the bottom. It was through that that the mass of molten metal rushed.

Immediately under the cupola is a sand floor, which inclines to the level of the bottom of a ditch about 20 feet long, 8 feet wide and four feet deep. There is usually about a foot of water put into this ditch after the cast, and the slag is dumped into this. Monday the molten iron, rushing through the break in the bottom of the cupola struck the sand first and followed down the sloping side into the ditch. Had the whole bottom given way, or had there been water in the ditch the results would have been appalling, as the explosion that would have followed would have been destructive to property and anything living that was in its path.

The breaking of the heavy iron bottom could not have been foreseen or guarded against by any human being, and is unique in the history of foundry accidents. There was evidently a flaw some where, caused by contraction, and it gave way, certainly under circumstances most fortuitous. It is the first time an accident of this kind ever occurred during the 30 years' existence of the Moser & Wehrle foundry, and may never occur again in any foundry in the United States. On the other hand it might occur at the same place, tonight. It is one of those accidents that are beyond human precedence.

Many of the workmen were slightly burned, the following being the worst injured:

John McCarthy, molder, Pine street, both hands painfully burned.

Peter Dreis, corner State and Campbell streets, molder, face badly burned, inhaler flames, may be serious.

Abraham Sorry, Western avenue, molder, ankle sprained in rush from cupola.

Joseph Moser, foreman, knocked down by force of explosion, and slightly burned.

Only a small portion of Monday's work was poured, so that the molders in the big north foundry were idle to-day, only those working who had a chance to pour their work before the accident. The break was fixed and a cast was made today, when the other work will be poured.

The loss to the company is in the delay in the work which is difficult to estimate.

The Queen & Crescent has announced that smokeless firing will be done on all passenger trains in the future, and that that fact would be made one of the features of the advertising for the coming season. Smokeless firing was done on the train which carried the general passenger agents and their families to New Orleans last week.

Conductor J. Vandevort is working again after a short absence.

Conductor W. A. Stewart is off on a short leave of absence.

Brakeman J. K. Weaver returned to work after having been off for several trips.

Brakeman O. K. Stone has been given leave of absence for a few days.

Conductor G. W. Shultz is laying off for a few days.

Brakeman W. G. Jenkins is off duty for a short rest.

Conductor T. V. Africa, the old reliable, is off for a short time.

Conductor J. A. Ditter is, on his caboose again after having been off for a few days.

During the past summer the Pan Handle has received fifteen sixty-foot baggage cars, while twelve more are being constructed in the Columbus shops. The additional equipment has enabled the company to place two baggage cars on No. 3 and other heavy through trains on which only one car was used before.

The Pennsylvania railroad will suspend further operations on a great part of the vast improvement and extension work now under way. In all it is estimated that nearly $10,000,000 of new work already under contract will be stopped within 30 days. Formal notice has been given contractors to suspend work on November 10. Other orders of like tenor will be issued without delay.

The Pan Handle is not experiencing the scarcity of baggage cars which has compelled other roads to refuse theatrical business. During the past summer the company built 15 60-foot cars of this variety and has 12 in course of construction at the local shops.—Columbus Dispatch.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has issued orders to cut down the force in the Altoona, Pa., shops 10 per cent, which will necessitate the suspension of 800 men.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the uniform rank of the K. of P. Wednesday night, 10-27-28.

Death at Granville.

Granville, O., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Lydia E. Coulter, widow of the late Preston Coulter, died today after an illness of only a few days with stomach trouble. Grove. Mrs. C. W. Kent and Mrs. Frank Felix of Newark. At this writing no arrangements have been made for the funeral.

TABLES TURNED.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 27.—While Krebs Stewart and Peter Kimmel were hunting in the Allegheny mountains they unexpectedly encountered a group of five bears, a male, female and three cubs.

Stewart fired first with both barrels, slightly wounding the entire family. Before Kimmel could load up with buckshot the bruin family was after the hunters.

Kimmel and Stewart retreated, with the bears after them, for half a mile down the mountain before the chase was abandoned. A hunting party has left Altoona in an effort to locate the bears.

The New Chief.

The new chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was the choice of the executive officers' meeting at Cleveland headquarters and will serve as grand chief until the next general convention of the brotherhood in May, 1904.

The Journal of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in a biographical sketch of the new grand chief says in part:

"Brother Stone was born in Altoona, Washington county, Ia., Feb. 1, 1860. At the age of sixteen years he left his father's farm to enter the academy at Washington, Ia., and later attended Western college at Western, Ia. His college days over, his thoughts turned toward business life, and, having five brothers in railroad work and fairly prosperous, it was natural that this should influence him to try the same field, and he eventually secured a position as a fireman on the Missouri division of the Rock Island system and in time was promoted to an engineer. He has been in active service as such for the past nineteen years, always an active worker in the cause of the brotherhood."

THE A. A. Griggs COMPANY

WIFE NOT BURIED, HE WEDDED ANOTHER.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 27.—Before the charred remains of his wife were interred Otis Guernsey, a farmer living near Hebron, secured a license to marry Miss Minnie Jones. Guernsey's matrimonial experience has been unusual. He was divorced last March, his wife charging cruelty, yet she went back to him. Last week she left again with W. W. Potter and went to Cedar Lake. There she was burned to death in a hotel fire.

WILLIAM KEHOE

Pleasantly Surprised by the Employees of the Baltimore and Ohio Foundry.

Mr. William Kehoe, a popular molder employed in the foundry at the Baltimore and Ohio shops, was the recipient of a delightful surprise on Sunday evening when a number of his fellow workmen came in on him unannounced. The occasion was the thirty-fourth anniversary of the birth of Mr. Kehoe, and his friends had made up their minds to assist him in celebrating the event. Mr. Kehoe was at first so surprised that he was unable to comprehend the situation, but when Mr. Samuel Oetting stepped forward and on behalf of his fellow employees presented him with a beautiful Turkish jacket, he realized he was "up against it" and did his utmost to entertain his self-invited guests. The evening was spent in having a good social time and some splendid music furnished by the Kane & Sullivan orchestra of Texas was much enjoyed.

The cough that "hangs on" will hang on until you take a remedy that will go to the seat of the trouble. Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil cures coughs and colds from the bottom. It is cod liver oil without the grease.

Consumption occurred rarely, if at all, among negroes in slavery, but now, after a little more than a quarter of a century of freedom, it causes more deaths among them than all the other contagious diseases combined. The negro rate from consumption is more than three times that of the whites.

A Love Letter

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles. Otto Dood, of Ponder, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth." 25c at Frank D. Hall's drug store.

ELMER BAKER

Well Known Street Car Conductor Died Early Tuesday Morning at 338 West Locust Street.

Elmer Baker, a well known resident of Newark, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, 338 West Locust street, about 2:30 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness of lung trouble, aged 35 years. Besides his parents and one brother and three sisters, he leaves a young wife to mourn his death. The deceased was formerly a popular conductor on the Newark and Granville Electric railway. The remains will be taken to Perryton for interment, although the exact time of holding the funeral is not known at this writing.

A LARGE AUDIENCE

Greeted Prof. Beardsley at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

Dr. B. F. Beardsley, of Hartford, Conn., gave the first number of his series of illustrated lectures and entertainments at the Taylor hall last evening. The hall was nearly full. It was an intelligent audience and many of those who were present were enthusiastic in their praise of what they heard and saw. The subject, "Good Health by Right Living," was thoroughly illustrated, and many bits of valuable information were carried away by those fortunate enough to be present.

The stereopticon pictures were thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience. The professor announced that his subject tonight would be "Food and Digestion," and that he would cook a meal on the platform, in full view of the audience, and at the close all present would be invited to partake.
